

BPL is not for the people. It is an easy way for the all ready rich and powerful power utility conglomerates to force their way into the private & public, national and international communications spectrum in an extremely short sighted fashion which will negatively impact ALL existing high frequency services on our planet! Please wake up to what you are "proposing!" This is not anything that is needed or has any valid reason for becoming a reality. Thank you for your attention.